

Two Session Seminar at Woolavington

I can now announce the programme for the next SCBA Seminars at Woolavington on Friday March 23rd.

The next SCBA Paul Bowyer seminars will be held at Woolavington Village Hall on Friday March 23rd. The programme will be:

3 p.m - 6 p.m.

The topic is on Competitive Bidding and will encompass the idea of what constitutes a sound overcall, taking into account conditions of play, vulnerability and so forth. The session will also look at the effective use of Double in competitive auctions, both as a take-out and as a method for extracting penalties.

7 p.m. - 10 p.m.

“Cover an honour with an honour”. This quotation is one of the most cited, and perhaps least understood, of all bridge aphorisms. As with so many of these adages it contains an element of truth and much common sense but as a “rule” it deserves to be honoured in the breach as much as in the observance. There will be many examples of when not to comply with this rule as when to comply with it.

The cost of each seminar is £10 to include basic refreshments and handouts after the sessions.

Paul is an international player and coach and these sessions are always very well supported so to secure your place please send a cheque made out to SCBA :

to Tony Russ at Kitwe Cottage, High Street, Evercreech, Shepton Mallet. BA4 6HZ giving the names of those who will be attending.

I am sorry to say that, following previous problems, I cannot accept names without cheques.
